Our group flies into the beautiful city of Tampa, located on the west coast of Florida, first spotted by Spanish explorers in the early 16th century. The journey will lead us south through the picturesque coastal city of St. Petersburg, to the beauty of Fort Myers, through the paradise of Naples, and across the azure waters of the Gulf of Mexico to Key West. Enjoy the treasures of this unique state, including eclectic museums, lush gardens, boating excursions, and the wilderness of the Everglades. Come along and discover for yourself why President Harry Truman, relaxing in his Winter White House, once wrote: "I've a notion to move the capital to Key West and just stay". Warm tropical breezes... amazing foliage and the deep blue sea beckon... come join us on a trip of a lifetime!
